OUR STORY

Since 1891, The University of La Verne, a diverse, comprehensive university, has been dedicated to the belief that a quality, values-based education enriches the human condition by engendering service, scholarly accomplishment, and professionalism. As a Hispanic Serving Institution (HSI), the University values diversity and places a high priority on creating an environment that supports the growth and success of underrepresented and underserved populations. Among the student population, 40% identify as Latino/Latina, 55% as students of color, 10% as international, and a large proportion are first generation university students.

The LaFetra College of Education seeks faculty with a demonstrated, passionate commitment to social justice and culturally responsive teaching in line with our Mission:

The LaFetra College of Education champions social equity for youth, adults, families, and communities by equipping and empowering scholarly, highly-skilled practitioners, education advocates, and leaders.

WE INVITE CANDIDATES TO CONSIDER JOINING OUR STORY...

Review of applications will begin the second week of February.
The search is open until the position has been filled.

The LaFetra College of Education is accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), now known as the Council on Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP).
