

15th Annual Summer Institute on Leadership for Educational Justice

Save the Date

Tuesday, July 9, 2019
8 a.m.–5 p.m.

Orton Center, University of Redlands

Keynote Speaker: Jeff Duncan-Andrade, Ph.D.

Jeff Duncan-Andrade is Associate Professor of La Raza Studies and Education at San Francisco State University. He is the founder of the Roses in Concrete Community School, a community responsive lab school in East Oakland, the Transformative Educators Now, and the Community Responsive Education Group. As a classroom teacher and school leader in East Oakland for the past 24 years, his pedagogy has been widely studied and acclaimed for producing uncommon levels of social and academic success for students. Duncan-Andrade lectures around the world and has numerous journal articles and book chapters on effective practices in schools and co-authored “The Art of Critical Pedagogy: Possibilities for Moving from Theory to Practice in Urban Schools.” In 2015, Duncan-Andrade was tapped to be a Commissioner on the National Commission on Teaching & America’s Future (NCTAF) and has been ranked as one of the nation’s most influential scholars by EdWeek’s Public Influence Rankings for the past three years.

Duncan-Andrade’s transformational work on the elements of effective teaching in schools serving poor and working class children is recognized throughout the U.S. and as far abroad as New Zealand. His research interests and publications span the areas of urban schooling and curriculum change, urban teacher development and retention, critical pedagogy, and cultural and ethnic studies. He works closely with teachers, school site leaders, union leaders, and school district officials to help them develop classroom practices and school cultures that foster self-confidence, esteem, and academic success among all students. Duncan-Andrade holds a Ph.D. in Social and Cultural Studies in Education and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Literature, both from the University of California, Berkeley.

*Are you interested in sending a conference proposal?
Email jose\_lalas@redlands.edu for more information.*

1200 East Colton Avenue, P.O. Box 3080, Redlands, CA 92373

Theme:

Cultural Politics in Education:
Advancing Critical Pedagogy and Equity with Hope and Engagement in Schools

1. How do policymakers and educators create policies and implement programs intended to engage underserved populations through critical pedagogy and sense of hope?
2. How is equity in the classroom for more student engagement addressed through critical pedagogy and sense of hope?
3. How can we ensure that we understand the notions of equality and equity?
4. How do we best prepare teachers and administrators to work with ALL students using equity as a vehicle for engagement, critical pedagogy, and sense of hope?

Featuring:

- Superintendents’ Forum: Policy Development on Equity
- Plenary Speakers
- Concurrent Sessions
- Poster Sessions

Learn more:

www.redlands.edu/cej

For more information, call Jose Lalas at 909-748-8792 or 951-847-0498 or email jose\_lalas@redlands.edu

Sponsored by the University of Redlands
School of Education and Center for Educational Justice