Creating Global Competent Teachers and Teacher Educators for the 21st Century”

The Fall 2008 Conference of the California Council on Teacher Education

Jointly Co-Sponsored by
California Association of Bilingual Teacher Educators (CABTE)
California Association of Professors of Educational Administration (CAPEA)
California Association of Professors of Special Education/Teacher Education Division (CAPSE/TED)
Independent California Colleges and Universities Council on the Education of Teachers (ICCUCET)
University of San Diego School of Leadership and Education Sciences (SOLES)

October 16-18, 2008
Kona Kai Resort, San Diego

Conference Theme:
“Internationalizing Teacher Education:
Creating Global Competent Teachers and Teacher Educators for the 21st Century”

The CTE 2008 Fall Conference will examine how schools and colleges of education can graduate culturally proficient global educators, with particular attention to teacher education. The conference will address and report on: (1) research on the state of teacher training for P-12 international education, and on international education and teacher preparation in the United States; (2) research and reflection on what is the role of teacher education in preparing more “cosmopolitan” teachers while working with P-12 students, and to identify effective teacher education programs in Schools and Colleges of Education that are involved in international education partnerships; (3) identify effective practices in which teacher education faculty are supported in internationalizing teacher education curricula; and (4) report on opportunities in international education for underrepresented education candidates.

See the accompanying tentative program for the three days.
