

Dean of the Bonnie G. Metcalf School of Education

California Baptist University (CBU) invites nominations and applications for the position of Dean, Bonnie G. Metcalf School of Education.

About the University. Founded in 1950, California Baptist University is a private comprehensive institution located in Riverside, California. Accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC), CBU offers 76 majors and 31 graduate degree programs in addition to three doctoral degrees. Affiliated with California Southern Baptist Convention, CBU is a member of the Council for Christian Colleges and Universities, the Association of Independent California Colleges and Universities and the International Association of Baptist Colleges and Universities. For more information about the university, visit this page <https://calbaptist.edu/about/>

About the Metcalf School of Education. CBU's Metcalf School of Education (SOE) enjoys a reputation for preparing high quality educators and leaders. The School of Education has a student body of over 800 students and is one of 10 schools and colleges within the university. With strong growth in student numbers and program offerings, the SOE consists of 17 full time faculty and 6 support staff. Students participate in undergraduate, graduate, and credential programs. All credential programs are state approved by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing.

Position Description. The Dean of the Metcalf School of Education is the chief academic officer and the administrative head of the school. The Dean holds academic rank and is charged with the administration, academic leadership, and supervision of the operation of the school through its instructional programs, research, publications, and service activities. This administrator must be a visionary who has the ability and energy to realize a vision.

The Dean reports directly to the Provost and serves on the Provost's Council. For a full job description, follow the job posting link below.

Qualifications. Required qualifications include 1) A demonstrated mature Christian faith aligned with CBU's foundation as a Christian institution committed to the Great Commission, 2) an earned doctorate degree from an accredited institution in a field related to the work of the SOE, 3) progressive administrative experience in higher education, 4) knowledge of P-12 education, 5) knowledge of teacher credential programs and state accreditation, 6) an outstanding record of leadership and service to the community, and 7) an outstanding record of academic activities including university teaching, research, external funding, and service.

Compensation. The salary for this position is competitive and commensurate with experience and qualifications.

Applications should be made online by following this link: <https://jobs.calbaptist.edu/postings/3185>

Nominations can be sent to tmurcray@calbaptist.edu

Confidential inquiries regarding the position can be made <https://calbaptist.edu/school-of-education/confidential-inquiry>