

[\[ Back \]](#)

Job Description:

Job Title
Associate/Full Professor of Teacher Education; Director of Teacher Education, August 2020
Department	Location	Category	Status
Attallah College of Educational Studies	Orange	Faculty	Full-time
General Information
The Chapman University Donna Ford Attallah College of Educational Studies seeks applications for a tenured or tenure-track Associate/Full professor and Director of Teacher Education with an emphasis in one or more of the following areas: secondary Social Science and English, Disability Studies, Special Education, Bilingual Education or related areas, starting August 2020. The Director of Teacher Education oversees three programs: Master of Teaching (MAT), Master of Special Education (MA SpEd), and Master of Curriculum and Instruction (MACI) and serves as Program Coordinator of one of those programs. Ideally, the Director could teach a course primarily in the elementary and secondary credential undergraduate and graduate programs (e.g., Master of Arts in Teaching, Master of Arts in Curriculum and Instruction, Master of Arts in Special Education). Courses within these programs are taken exclusively by graduate students earning degrees and credentials in Elementary Education, Elementary Education with Bilingual Emphasis, Secondary Education, and Special Education (i.e., Multiple Subject, Single Subject, Mild/Moderate, Moderate/Severe) in preK-12 teaching. There may be additional opportunities to teach education related courses in the Ph.D. program. Chapman University is a nationally ranked institution offering traditional undergraduate and graduate programs in the heart of Orange County, one of Southern California’s most diverse and vibrant regions. The university achieved R2 status in the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education, a distinction held by just 10 percent of all U.S. universities. Our faculty include academic leaders who excel in research, publishing and world-class teaching in our 11 schools and colleges, including the Attallah College of Educational Studies. Dedicated to forward-looking, personalized education, we create an environment for unlimited achievement by both our students and faculty. Attallah College is deeply committed to excellence in scholarship and teaching, including providing students with personalized educational experiences involving monitoring and collaborative research. More information about the University and the Attallah College of Educational Studies is available at https://www.chapman.edu/education/index.aspx. The University is dedicated to enhancing diversity and inclusion in all aspects of recruitment and employment. More information on diversity and inclusion at Chapman University is available at https://www.chapman.edu/diversity.
Qualifications

Required qualifications:

- Earned Ph.D./Ed.D. in Education or related field
- Established record of research and scholarship commensurate with rank
- Experience in teaching subject matter related to secondary social sciences or English, Ethnic Studies, language development, Special Education, Disability Studies, Bilingual education (Spanish bilingual preferred) or related areas

Desired qualifications:

- Experience leading teams in K-12 or Higher Education
- Evidence of effective and innovative teaching at the graduate and/or undergraduate level
- Established record of, or evidence of potential for, obtaining external grant funding
- Demonstrated ability to educate for a culturally diverse society
- Experience with development and implementation of educational programs in collaboration with local communities
- Ability to design and implement program and course assessment tools
- Experience using and modeling technology in educational settings
- Experience mentoring and supporting junior and/or adjunct faculty with course design, assessment tools, technology use, community partnerships
- Demonstrated commitment to creating and leading initiatives that promote equity, diversity, and inclusion within teacher education and higher education

---

Responsibilities

Faculty Responsibilities include:

Tenure track faculty are expected to develop and maintain an active research agenda and are evaluated on their research/scholarly activity, teaching, service, and advising/mentoring.

The successful candidate will administer the Teacher Education Programs, and teach, advise, and mentor students in our graduate Teacher Education programs that prepare K-12 educators.

Director Responsibilities include:

Providing leadership and vision for Teacher Education, managing day-to-day operations, such as: overseeing budgets and supervising staff, collaborating with other Attallah College Program Directors and Coordinators, administrators, and staff members on the development and utilization of procedures and practices that support, develop, and improve academic programs in the College, leading a specific Program Design Team, creating teaching schedules, recruiting and supervising part-time faculty with assistance from other program coordinators in Teacher Education. The Director will have the opportunity to carry on instructional, research, and/or outreach activities, commensurate with her/his/their administrative responsibilities and interests.

---

Contact Information

Qualified candidates are invited to electronically submit a Faculty Employment Application, cover letter detailing qualifications related to the position description, curriculum vitae, samples of relevant publications and syllabi, and contact information for three professional references to:

Dr. Meghan Cosier and Dr. Margie Curwen
Search Committee Co-Chairs

c/o Zach Nguyen, Search Coordinator – znguyen@chapman.edu

Please use "Professor and Director of TE" as the email subject line. Any inquiries may also be directed to the Zach Nguyen, Search Coordinator at znguyen@chapman.edu.

Application review will begin immediately. Salary will be commensurate with qualifications. Chapman University offers a relocation expense reimbursement package as well as a first-time Orange County homebuyer assistance program. Successful completion of a background check is required for the final candidate.

Download a copy of the Chapman Faculty Application for Employment here.

Chapman University is an equal opportunity employer committed to fostering a diverse and inclusive academic global community. The University is dedicated to enhancing diversity and inclusion in all aspects of recruitment and employment. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, national origin, ancestry, citizenship status, physical disability, mental disability, medical condition, military and veteran status, marital status, pregnancy, genetic information or any other characteristic protected by state or federal law. The University is committed to achieving a diverse faculty and staff and encourages members of underrepresented groups to apply.

Chapman University, One University Drive, Orange, CA 92866 Human Resources Department